How to Print and Use These Cards

Download this document to your computer and save it for future reference. When you are ready to print one or more of these cards for use, choose File, then Print. Once this entire document loads in your Printer queue, choose the specific Single Page you want to print so that you save paper and ink. And, of course, you can select Black & White if you don't want the card to print in color.

For best results, print these cards using cardstock in your printer. Of course, if you don't have cardstock, you can use regular printer paper.

Once your specific card has printed, fold it in half like a store-bought card. Trim away the extra paper edge using scissors or a paper cutter.

Last, write your sentiments on the inside of the card for the recipient and either include your monetary gift or attach it to your gift-wrapped gift.

NOTE: each coloring page card has a corresponding coloring page that is not a card. Print and use those for activities for your young guests OR just for the fun of it!

About the Author

Carole Burkhard is the founder, content creator and photographer of the blog, Toot Sweet 4 Two. Launched the summer of 2012, Toot Sweet 4 Two is a lifestyle blog with an emphasis on food and recipes. A self-taught home cook, the basic foundation of her cooking experience was through helping her father and mother in the kitchen.

Married to Charlie (25+ years), her main recipe 'tester', Carole cooks every day and loves to experiment and create something new. Charlie and Carole have had many pets over the years, but their current, one-and-only pet is a boy named Coco, their beloved and very spoiled Snowshoe Siamese cat. His picture pops up on the blog with relative frequency AND for a Coco overload, visit MEET COCO on Carole's site.

Creating this eBook, 12 FREE Birthday Cards to Print at Home, has been a labor of love to the online community. In curating this collection of cards for readers, Carole hopes to inspire women everywhere as they have inspired her. Hop over to Carole's website and join her often at Toot Sweet 4 Two.
