How to Print and Use These Designs

Download this document to your computer and save it for future reference. When you are ready to print one or more of these designs for use, choose File, then Print. Once this entire document loads in your Printer queue, choose the specific Single Page you want to print so that you save paper and ink. And, of course, you can select Black & White if you don't want the designs to print in color.

If using these designs to frame, print these designs using cardstock in your printer for best results. Of course, if you don't have cardstock, you can use regular printer paper. Once your specific design has printed, trim away any excess paper edges using scissors or a paper cutter so that it fits in your frame. For example, if it doesn't fit in the frame you have selected, trim it to fit. And, if you have selected a frame larger than 8½" x 11", use tape to adhere the design to the back of a mat that fits inside your selected frame.

If you are using these designs for a decoupage project, print these designs on regular printer paper. Then decoupage away!

NOTE: Please note that this eBook and the printable designs included are for personal use only.

About the Author

Carole Burkhard is the founder, content creator and photographer of the blog, Toot Sweet 4 Two. Launched the summer of 2012, Toot Sweet 4 Two is a lifestyle blog with an emphasis on food and recipes. A self-taught home cook, the basic foundation of her cooking experience was through helping her father and mother in the kitchen.

Married to Charlie (25+ years), her main recipe 'tester', Carole cooks every day and loves to experiment and create something new. Charlie and Carole have had many pets over the years, but their current, one-and-only pet is a boy named Coco, their beloved and very spoiled Snowshoe Siamese cat. His picture pops up on the blog with relative frequency AND for a Coco overload, visit MEET COCO on Carole's site.

Creating this eBook, 31 FREE Scary and Cute Halloween Designs to Print and Use at Home, has been a labor of love to the online community. In curating this collection of designs for readers, Carole hopes to inspire women everywhere as they have inspired her. Hop over to Carole's website and join her often at Toot Sweet 4 Two.
